I winna ha'e the Minister for a his Godly looks, I winna ha'e the Sodger Lad for he gangs to the war,
Nor yet will I the Lawyer ha'e for a his willycrooks: Nor will I ha'e the Sailor Lad because he smells of Tar.
I winna ha'e the Plowman Lad, nor yet will I the Miller: I winna ha'e the Lord nor Laird for a their micklege
But I will ha'e my Sandy Lad, without a penny Siller: But I will ha'e my Sandy Lad my Sandy o'er the mair
For he's aye kissing aye Clapping &c. For he's aye kissing aye Clapping &c.

For the Guittar.

The FRIEND and PITCHER

A Comedy in Two Acts. As performed at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden, on Monday, the 14th of December, 1794.

Handwritten musical notation on ten staves, including notes, rests, and bar lines. The notation is in ink and appears to be a score for a play. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including a large tear on the right edge.
